

STREET GRACE™

Cheryl DeLuca-Johnson
Brand Ambassador

Cheryl DeLuca-Johnson serves as the Brand Ambassador of Street Grace. As the organization's founding CEO, Cheryl firmly established the organization's presence within the field and helped to solidify Street Grace's niche within the faith-based community. Cheryl has over twenty years of humanitarian work experience.

She is a Licensed Professional Counselor (LPC) with a background specializing in women's issues, specifically women and addiction.

Prior to Street Grace, Cheryl held several positions at Metro Atlanta Recovery Residences (MARR) and was instrumental in the changes that renovated their women's program. She has also served on Drug and Alcohol Advisory boards, worked with World Hope International on women's issues in Sri Lanka, and volunteered therapeutic services with Red Cross. She is celebrating 31 years of marriage to Ernie Johnson this year. They have six children: Eric, Maggie, Michael, Carmen, Allison, and Ashley. Her youngest four children are adopted from orphanages in Romania and Paraguay, and from the U.S. Foster Care system.

About Street Grace:

Street Grace is a faith-based organization that utilizes evidence-based demand reduction strategies to eradicate the commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) through prevention/protection, policy and pursuit.

CSEC is sexual activity with a child in exchange for something of value given to the child or a third person.
