

STREET GRACE™

Patty Gregory
Public Relations

Patty is a seasoned communicator and media enthusiast who uses her nearly two decades of media relations and campaign experience to serve as strategic counsel to promote the mission of Street Grace. Patty has led the development and execution of dozens of media relations and content campaigns for nonprofits aiding in brand awareness, intent to use and fundraising.

In addition to communications strategy counsel, she provides social media, media relations and brand enhancement consulting services for nonprofits with the backing of her master's degree in Public Administration from the Andrew Young School of Policy Studies at Georgia State University. She earned her undergraduate degree in public relations from the Grady School of Journalism at the University of Georgia and also has an accreditation in public relations from the Public Relations Society of America.

About Street Grace:

Street Grace is a faith-based organization that utilizes evidence-based demand reduction strategies to eradicate the commercial sexual exploitation of children (CSEC) through prevention/protection, policy and pursuit.

CSEC is sexual activity with a child in exchange for something of value given to the child or a third person.
