

Eboni Belle, DHSc
Director of Outreach and Operations

Eboni is the Director of Outreach and Operations for Street Grace. She is a health and human services professional with over ten years of experience in the government, private, and nonprofit sectors. She has dedicated her career to prevention, treatment, and advocacy. In this role, she will exhibit executive leadership competencies, such as strategic and tactical outreach and development; project management; and oversight of day-to-day operations.

Previously, Eboni was the Operational Director at Atlanta Harm Reduction Coalition, Inc. She worked at the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) in the Division of HIV/AIDS Prevention as an Epidemiologist Assistant, Data Manager/Analyst, and Oak Ridge Institute for Science and Education (ORISE) Fellow. During the Ebola response, she served as a Pre and Post Deployment Coordinator in the Deployment Risk Mitigation Unit at CDC's Emergency Operations Center.

Eboni obtained her bachelors in business management, masters in health services administration, and doctorate in global health. She is a published author and has been honored with multiple awards for her community service. Eboni believes in being the change she wants to see via shining a light in dark places. Her mission is to ensure everyone knows and has confidence that they are not invisible but held in high regard. When Eboni is not working, you can find her traveling, volunteering, and spending time with family and friends.

About Street Grace:

Street Grace is a faith-based organization that utilizes evidence-based demand reduction strategies to eradicate the Commercial Sexual Exploitation of Children (CSEC) through prevention/ protection, policy and pursuit.

CSEC is sexual activity with a child in exchange for something of value given to the child or a third person.
