

Shanequa Stepps, MSW
Program Manager/Senior Care Coordinator

Shanequa obtained her bachelor's degree in Social Work from Jacksonville State University and her master's degree in Social Work from the University of New England. Shanequa is currently working to obtain her Doctorate degree in Human Services with a focus in Leadership and Organizational Management. She began her professional career as a Certified Investigator for the State of Georgia working with youth who were victimized by child abuse and neglect. During her time working for the Department of Family & Children Services, Shanequa served in many leadership roles to ensure the safety of abused children. In addition, she has also gained valuable experience while working for the Department of Behavioral Health & Developmental Disabilities, serving individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities through the investigations department.

In her role, Shanequa collaborates with each and every care coordinator as they work towards fulfilling the organization's strategic plans. Shanequa's goal is to ensure that every program results in a positive, evidence-driven impact on the youth in communities served.

About Street Grace:

Street Grace is a faith-based organization that utilizes evidence-based demand reduction strategies to eradicate the Commercial Sexual Exploitation of Children (CSEC) through prevention, protection, policy, and pursuit.

CSEC is sexual activity with a child in exchange for something of value given to the child or a third person.
